

Dear Friends...

Let me wish you a very happy 2015! This year, we at Belfiglio Design decided to do something a little different. We are revisiting some of our favorite pictures and quotes from years past, ones that we like and ones that you have said you enjoyed. So we hope you enjoy this blast from the past, and may you find some of your favorites here!

Please keep checking back on the website:

www.beldesign.webs.com

for new pieces, cards and news. Please feel free to contact me if you would like a set of custom notecards, a beautiful painting or would like me to create anything from a card to a masterpiece just for you. Have a great year and don't forget to order next year's calendar in time for holiday giving. Stay tuned!

Sincerely,

Lee Evan Belfiglio
